2. The core part of the Platform is MAZURI City. MAZURI's business model is driven by MZR token, with several utility features, which will be further described in the document. Platform will be further developed, adding new functionalities.
3. MZR token is a utility token with clear underlying functional features (i.e. rights) for the token holders. 4. There will be no distribution of profits from the Company to token holders, nor will MZR token holders have any other investment interests.
5. By agreeing to this document and / or using the www.mazuri.io website, the user expressly agrees and understands that there is no reason to believe that the MZR token will increase in value.
